BULLY B.E.A.N.S.

Written by: Julia Cook

Illustrated by: Tammie Lyon

Maxine liked to pick on kids...especially Winston. Winston is the smartest kid in our whole school. Maxine made him do all of her homework and give her all of his lunch money. Maxine liked to make Winston cry...then she'd call him a crybaby.

"If you don't do exactly what I tell you to, I'll knock you into next week!"

Nobody liked the way Maxine treated Winston, but we were too afraid to do anything about it.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

Discussion Questions

You can use these cards to help guide your students through the story. They can also be used to check for comprehension.

Bully B.E.A.N.S.

As a class, brainstorm all of the different ways students can stand up to bullying. Have students choose one way they will stand up to bullying and write about it on the Bully B.E.A.N.S. paper.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Why did the other kids decide to let Maxine be the boss?

How does Maxine treat Winston?

Did Maxine have any real friends and why?

How did Maxine's brother treat her?

What are bully beans?

How did Maxine react when Winston stood up for himself?

What finally made Maxine change?

Do you think Maxine will be able to make new friends now and why?

Do you think Maxine will have the courage to stand up to her brother and why?

What can you do if you see someone being bullied?
